

Projects

LichteFeld Inc > Projects > Lincoln Trail Behavioral Health Systems II

Lincoln Trail Behavioral Health Systems II

Medical Projects

Square Feet

19,207 s.f.

Project Location

Wilson Road - Radcliff, Kentucky

Construction Dates

Start: 4-26-10 Complete: 1-24-11

End User

Psychiatric Health Care

Property Details

19,207 s.f. building addition. 30 bed unit. Includes 15 patient overnight rooms, nurses station, seclusion room, day rooms, activity rooms, offices, file rooms, conference center, observation rooms, nurses lounge, and ancillary space. The building is a steel structure system engineered via Butler Manufacturing Systems, the outer walls are made of Kortech steel core foam fill panel system ready for brick and stucco application direct fastened to the panels. The interior is metal stud wall framed systems, insulated, with impact resistant drywall, Hard ceilings where required, p-lam cabinets and counters, hollow metal doors and frames, metal frames and solid core wood doors, store front glass shatter resistant, carpet, VCT, floor drains, all of the necessary HVAC, electrical, and plumbing systems in place.

Project is designed and built by LichteFeld, Inc. partnered with Mike Prindle of Berry-Prindle

Lincoln Trail Behavioral Health Systems II

Architects